ARCHBISHOP WEBER

Archbishop Weber, the apostle of the Sacred Heart, led a life characterized by his abiding charity towards God and men. He was eternally grateful to his first spiritual director, Fr. Peter Semenenko. So imbued was Archbishop Weber with the charity of Fr. Semenenko, that as a young seminarian in the Collegium Polonicum at Rome, he bound himself with a vow to become a religious and follow in the footsteps of his saintly mentor. However, bowing to the wish of his bishop, the young cleric was instead ordained a diocesan priest. 35 years later, he would finally fulfill his hope. His lifetime was spent propagating the "Apostleship of Prayer."

FORWARD AND THEME

No written or pictorial history may ever hope to depict fully and accurately the tireless efforts of educators. Nevertheless, justice decrees that such an attempt be made.

Weber High School has been a landmark in the field of education in Chicago for the past 75 years. Here is its history! Weber High's story is one of dedication and development, advancement and achievement, based upon the solid principles of Catholic education.

What symbol other than the diamond, adamant and shining, could better express the efforts of the designers, teachers, and students who have given purpose to these years of service?

DEDICATION

Through the years, thousands of people have contributed a part of themselves to Weber. It is to these people that the 1965 Dolphin is dedicated.

Since its conception, Weber has been operated by the Fathers of the Congregation of the Resurrection. These men have done much more than merely lay the physical foundations of Weber; they have set the standard of high principle that each Weberite seeks.

The priests at Weber have not worked alone in the developing of young men's minds. Ever present have been the dedicated laymen. It has been their function to teach and guide.

Rev. Vincent Barzynski, C.R., founder of our school.

Rev. E. Karlowicz accepts Alumnus of the Year award from Mr. E. Dykla.

Holy Mass is as much a part of the Weberite's life as is studying, athletics, and socializing.

But what is a school without students? Weber High is reckoned today because of its alumni. They have forged the iron-clad traditions, have attained the highest merit, and have initiated the now famous Weber spirit.

The students of today hold high that banner which reveals them as Weber men. Carrying on the traditions, they pave the way for tomorrow's students.

To all of these, teachers and students, yesterday's, today's, and tomorrow's, we dedicate this Diamond Anniversary Yearbook.

A DREAM AND A BEGINNING

There were wooden sidewalks and gas-lit streetlamps in the Chicago of 1890, the year Weber High was founded. Nearly 20 years had elapsed since the great disaster of the Chicago fire, and the city had grown beyond expectation. In 1870, St. Stanislaus Kostka parish was located in what was then a suburb of Chicago. Along the vast prairies and open fields, only a few frame houses dotted the horizon. Plank Road (Milwaukee Avenue) was the main route into the heart of the city. Fullerton Avenue was the northern boundary line of the city; Western Avenue was the western line; Egan Avenue (35th Street), the southern and the lake, the eastern line. St. Stanislaus parish was in an area where Chicagoans hunted ducks and held picnics.

By 1890, however, the city had expanded beyond all dreams. The teeming masses of immigrants flooded the booming industrial and commercial city, which was brimming with vitality. It was in such a climate of expansion and growth, that the genial and beloved pastor of St. Stanislaus parish, the Reverend Vincent Barzynski, C. R., converted the old frame church into classrooms and opened one of the first high schools on the north-west side of Chicago. In September, 1890, St. Stanislaus College (the former name of our school) came into existence. Father Vincent devoted a great deal of time and effort in making our school a lasting success. He appointed two priests of the Congregation of the Resurrection to staff the newly organized high school. Father Joseph Halter, C.R., an experienced and dedicated teacher, was given the arduous task of directing the school and teaching most of the courses. He received a very capable assistant in the person of Father John Piechowski, C.R. These two Fathers were the pioneers of what is now Weber High.

The first year saw twelve students enroll. They were: Peter Pyterek, Stanley Rutkowski, Leo Dunajewski, Peter Siuda, Bruno Schriber, Nicholas Budzban, John Matz, Martin Legowski, William Zwiardowski, Frank Sinicki and Joseph Ballasa.

There were no long corridors, electric bells, lockers, or gym. The two classrooms in the old frame church made up the entire school plant. Each student had a chair and a table assigned to him, at which he did his work throughout the school year. A potbellied stove kept the students warm during the winter months, and narrow, screen-less windows provided some fresh air during the warmer days.

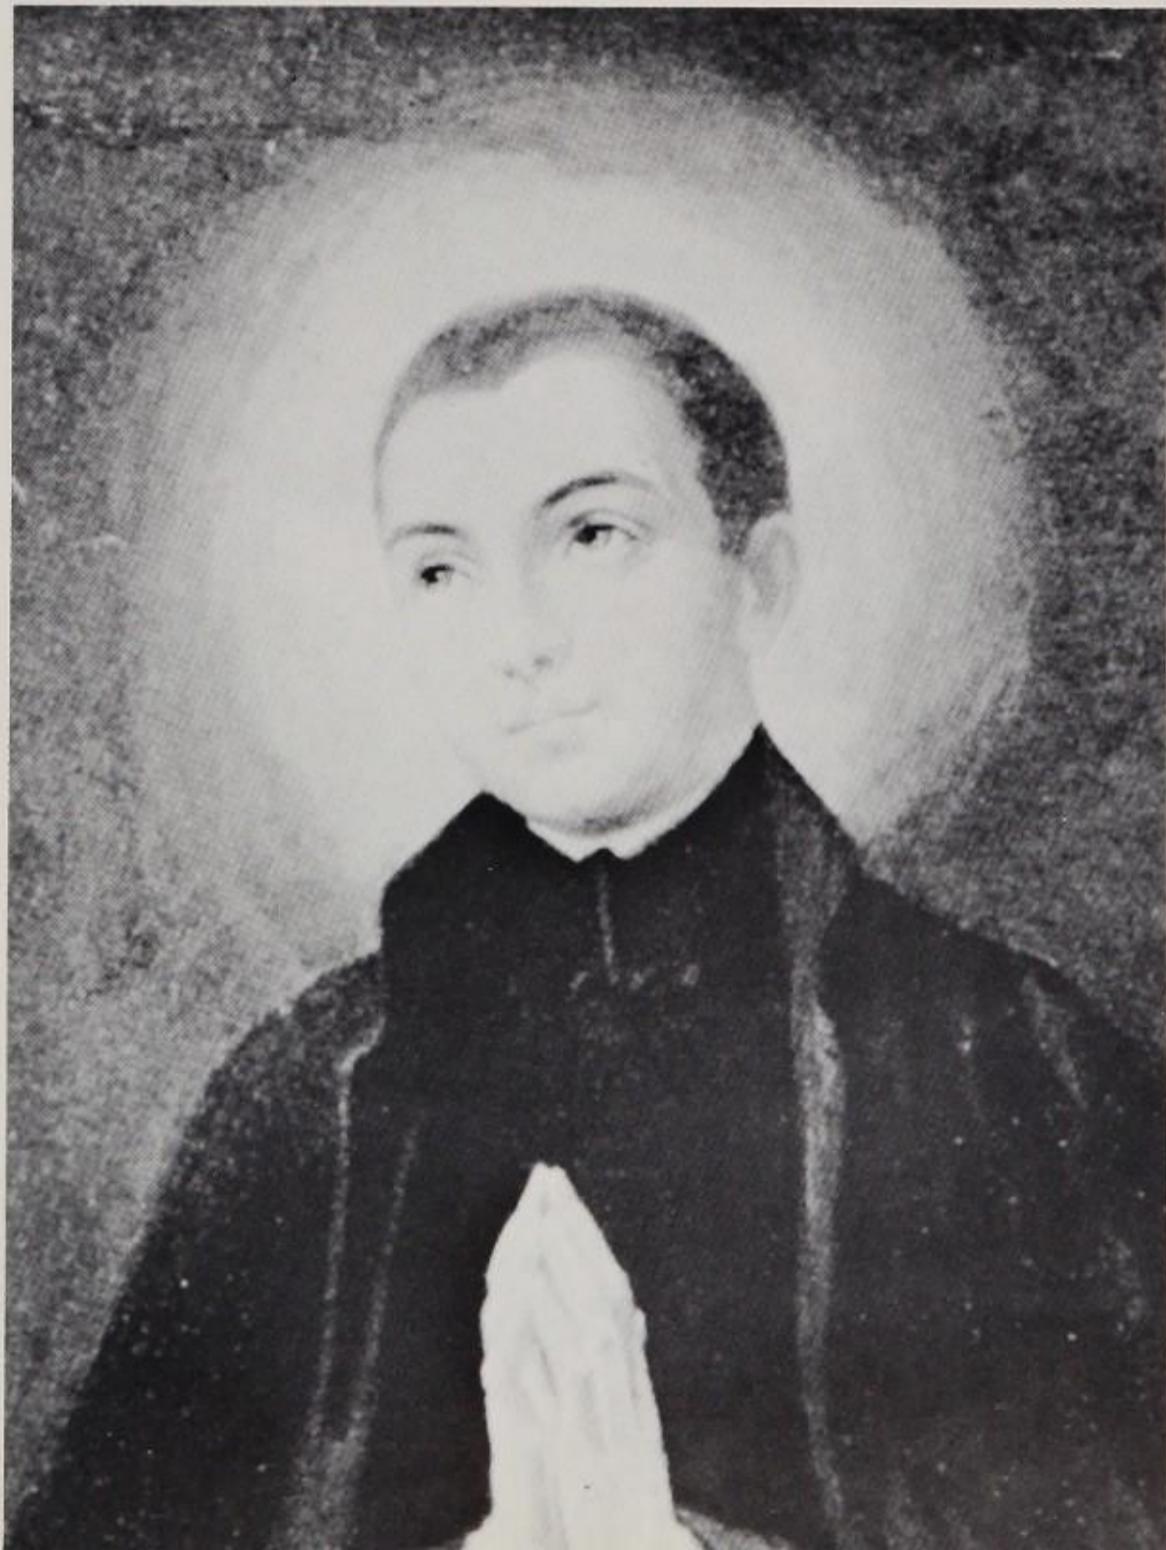

This chemistry laboratory displays the College's early interest in the sciences.

St. Stanislaus Kostka, the Patron Saint of the College.

This was a time when the faculty begged, entreated, and pleaded with parents to send their teenage boys to high school. Many boys, after finishing the sixth year of grammar school, were packed off to a steel mill or apprenticed out into some trade and began to earn a living. Immigrant parents with seven or eight children could not spare the oldest son of the family to engage in such a luxury as a high school education. It was a slow, tedious process of patient and general persuasion on the part of the parish and high school Fathers, who finally convinced some parents of the importance and benefits of an institution of higher learning.

Tuition costs amounted to 25¢ a day. Classes ran six days a week from September through July.

The beginnings were slow and difficult, but the pioneering faculty, devoted as they were, to the education of youth, persevered in their heroic endeavors to establish their school on a firm foundation.

The founder of our school, Father Vincent Barzynski, C.R., exerted all of his energies and talents to promote the welfare and success of the St. Stanislaus College. Though the beginnings were humble, Father Vincent foresaw a great future in his cherished dream of an institution of higher learning. The education of young boys was well worth the many difficulties he had to experience.

In June of 1891, an examination of the students was held open to the public. Father Joseph Haltner, C.R., the first principal, endeavored to show the parents the great progress that their sons had made throughout the year of study.

Top: The cast of Pinero's Magistrate produced by the class of 1924.

Bottom: The stalwarts of the 1904 baseball team.

These boys took oral examinations in such subjects as English, Latin, Mathematics, History, and Bookkeeping. The parents were literally amazed at the accomplishments of their sons. At a time when there was a great deal of opposition to high school education, these public examinations helped to clear up doubts in the minds of parents.

1951 was a busy year as the "New Weber" begins to become a reality.

The architects and engineers were W. F. McGaughey and Assoc. The general contractor was the George Sollitt Construction Co.

Despite hard work and whole-hearted devotion to the cause of higher education, the school administration met with constant opposition. After one year of operation, the school was threatened with extinction due to the meagre number of students. Most parents thought that higher education was a sheer waste of time. There were some, however, who understood the true value of learning and continued to support the College.

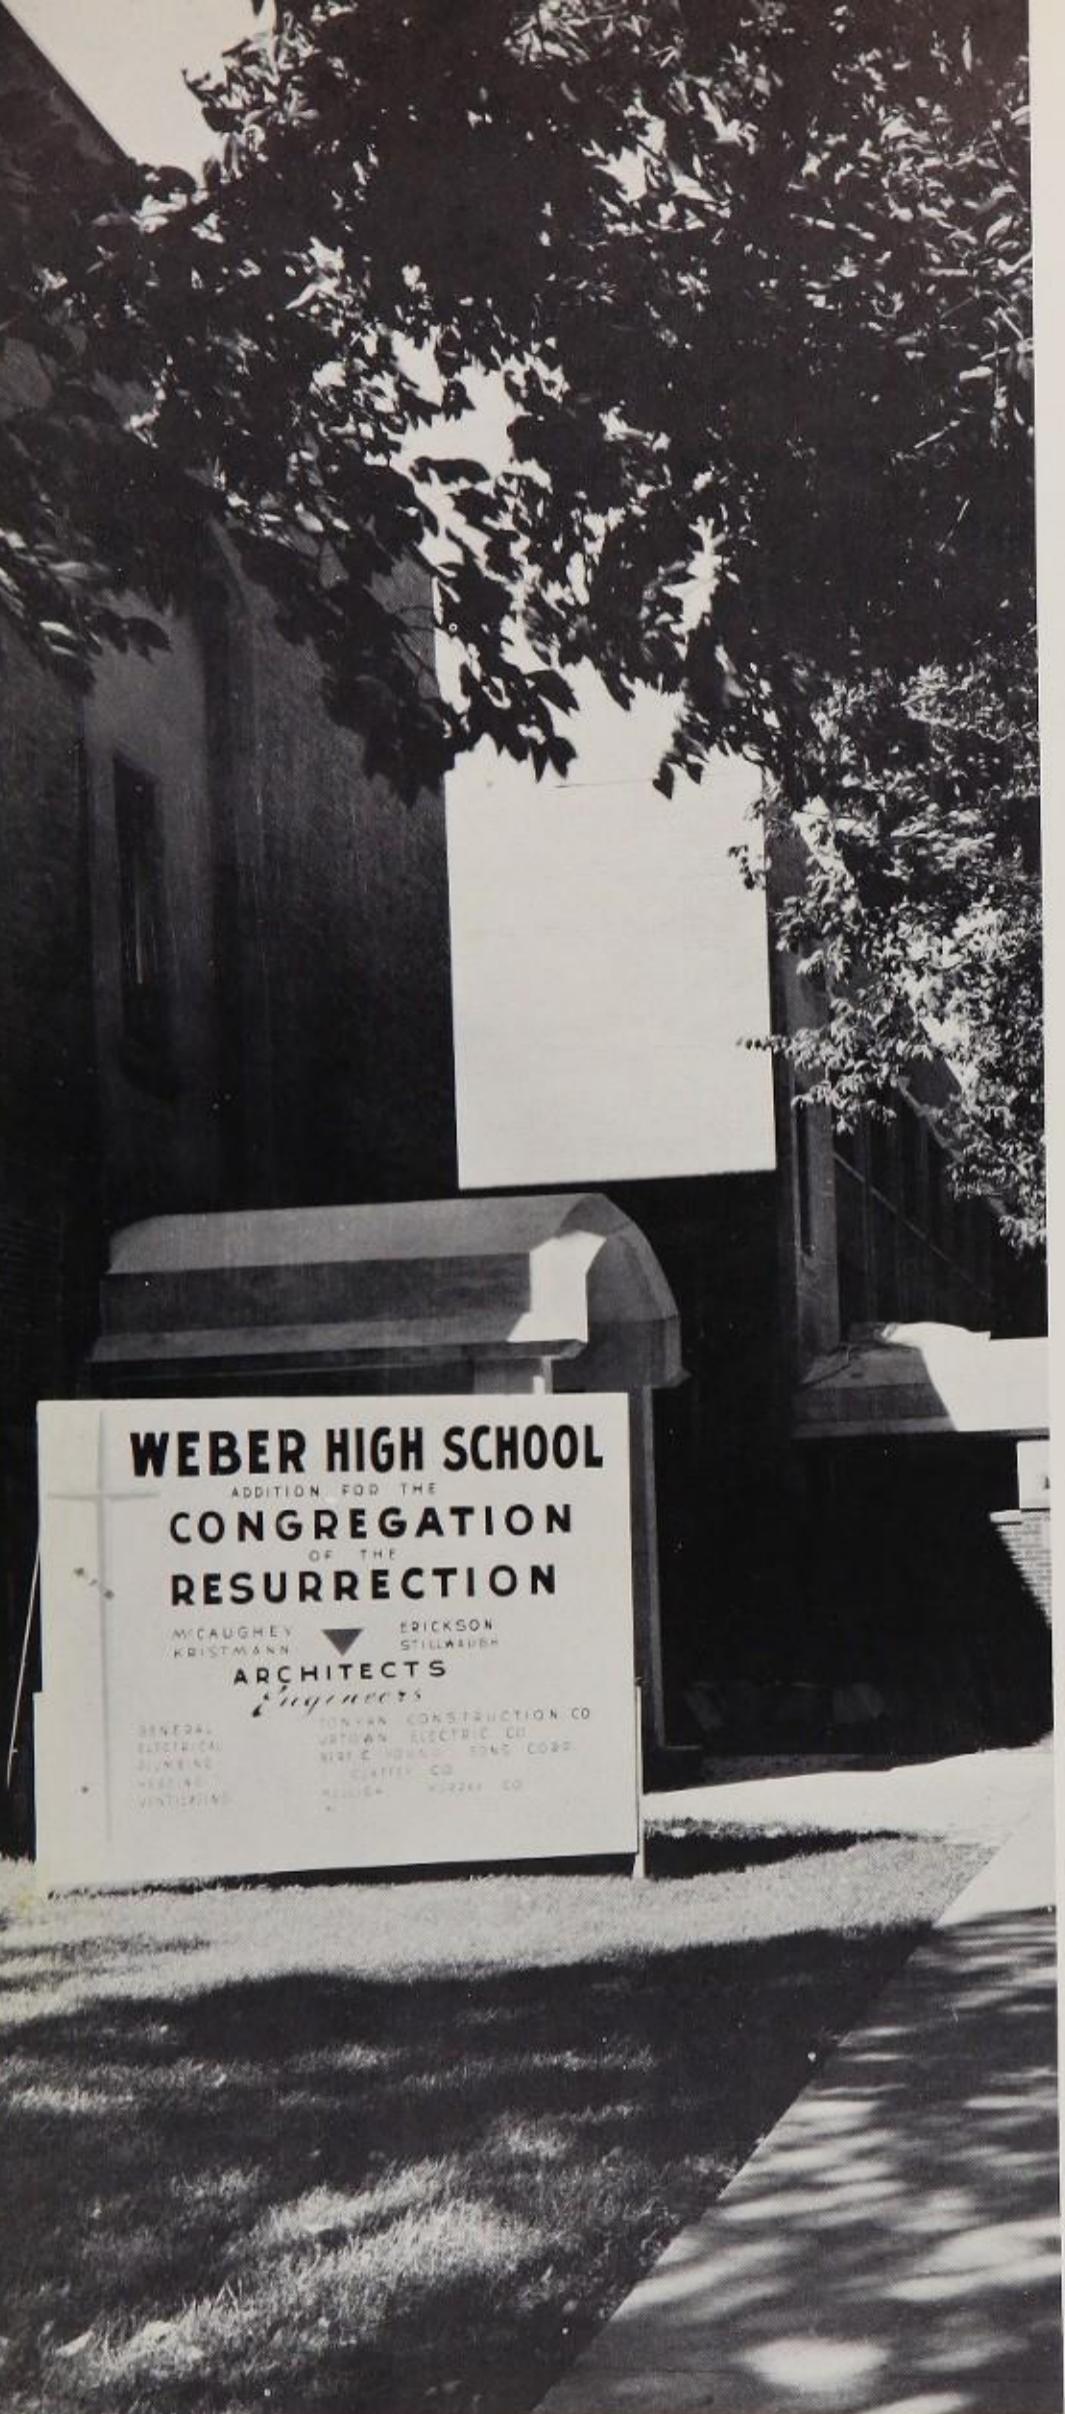

Both Father Vincent and Father Halter never became discouraged. Their efforts were rewarded when, in the following school term, 1892, eighty students enrolled in the high school. This was a record attendance compared to the preceding year's enrollment of twelve.

In 1892 Father John Piechowski, C.R. became principal. This zealous man arranged the courses of study according to the American system. Four lay teachers were hired, and a commercial course, in addition to the classical course already being offered, was introduced. Tuition was raised from twenty-five cents a month to twenty-five dollars a year. This was only the beginning. In a relatively short time, the school had gained a reputation for its striking discipline and academic excellence. St. Stanislaus College on the corner of Bradley and Noble was indeed prospering.

On July 2, 1897, the first commencement exercises of the College were held in the school auditorium. This was certainly a most historic day, for it marked the success of the first secondary school founded by the Resurrectionist Fathers in the United States. All but one of the six graduates entered the Congregation of the Resurrection.

On the athletic field Weber's history has been a most gratifying one. (Chicago Tribune Photo)

After these difficult early years, the College continued to grow and continued to establish itself as an outstanding contribution to learning in the Chicago area.

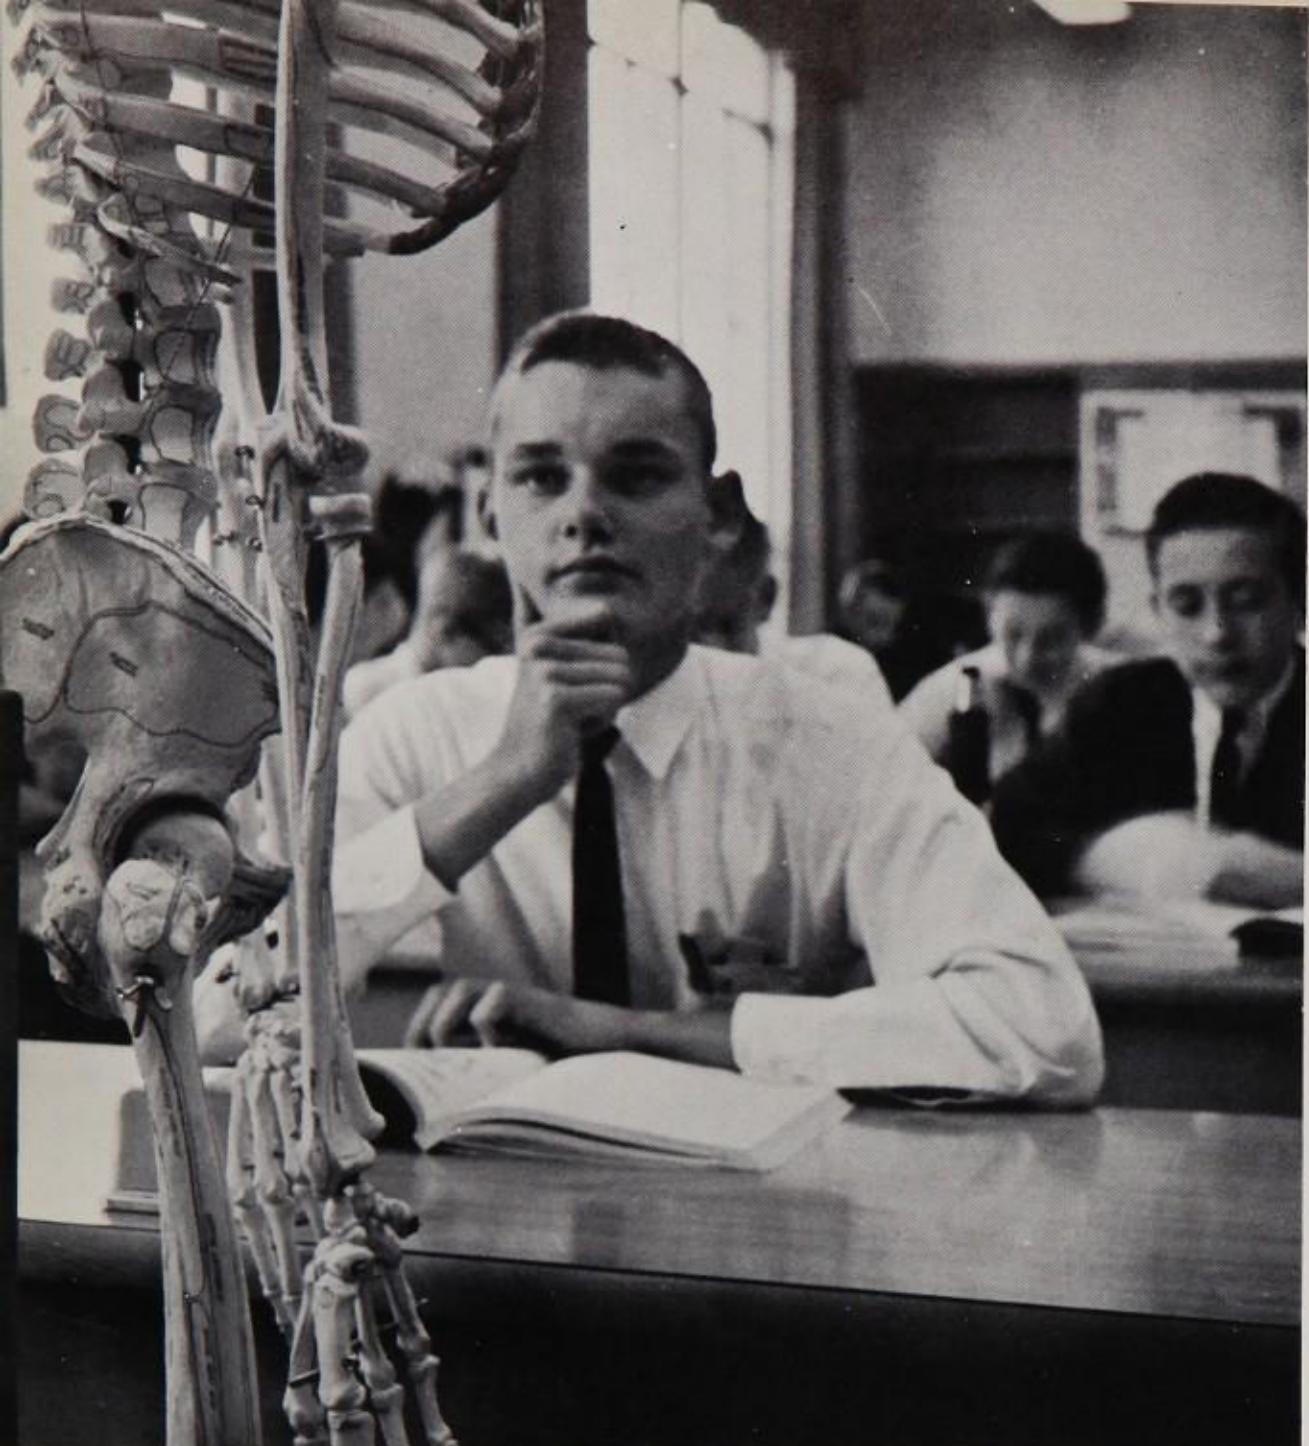

Physically, the school also had begun to grow. In 1899 St. Stanislaus moved to Division Street. Plans for further expansion were interrupted by World War I. During the 20's physical expansion was resumed. 1928 saw the opening of a new building, Gordon Hall. This structure provided the school with a gymnasium, science, physics and chemistry laboratories, additional classrooms, and a Cafeteria. Dedication had begun to reap its reward.

Caught in a moment of deep thought, Weber student K. Voit exemplifies the Weberites thirst for knowledge.

A most memorable year was 1930. Old St. Stanislaus College received the name of Weber High School in honor of the saintly Resurrectionist, the Most Reverend Archbishop Joseph Weber, C.R., D.D., former provincial of the Resurrection Fathers and Brothers in the United States and Canada. Archbishop Weber was a "great servant of God, . . . a truly religious person."

In the 40's the need for further expansion was realized, and on August 24, 1949 ground was broken for the new Weber High School at Palmer and Latrobe in Cragin. Classes commenced in 1950, and the "New Weber" became a reality.

Growth was phenomenal. Along with its increased enrollment came an increased prestige. A new era was beginning. Weber High was about to step into the role of leader in the immense field of high school education.

Left: One must live by his faith. Religion at Weber is living.

Right: M. Haracz personifies the fiery determination of true Weberites throughout the past seventy-five years.

With the challenges of the 1950's being satisfactorily encountered in a new and beautiful structure, the 1960's brought with them new demands and new needs. As the children knocked at the doors of education and found that there was no room, the building of an addition became imperative. This need was abated when the doors of the new addition, heeding the knock, were opened in 1962.

Weber High School, steeped in tradition and dedicated to teaching, has grown from a two-classroom frame building in 1890 to an imposing brick edifice capable of housing over twelve hundred students. But Weber High is the story of men with a dream and the courage to see that dream's fulfillment.

Weber High has always offered its students the opportunities to practice their social graces.

1890 - 1965

A dream, two rooms, and students eight,
A gas lit street, and roads
mudcaked,
Outside this slumbering giant,
stood
A minute speck upon the sands of ignorance.

The years brought toil, trouble,
and pain,
But all the effort - not in vain.

No more a dream, but long reality,
A credit to God and community,
Our school stands tall among them
all,
A diamond dazzling in benevolence.

PRINCIPAL

---

REVEREND JOSEPH HALTER, C.R.
PRINCIPAL 1890-1892

Weber High (then St. Stanislaus College) was blessed in having this man assigned as first principal. He organized the first program of studies, taught classes, and placed the school on a high academic level. Father Halter soon received the reputation of being the friend and champion of the student body; he always made himself available to help any student.

PRINCIPAL, 1892

After two years of hard work and constant anxiety, Father Halter literally spent himself. He was advised to take a rest, and Father Gordon was appointed interim principal. Although Father Gordon's tenure was to last only a few months, his name was to be long remembered. In 1930 Weber High's then new Gymnasium was to carry his name. Gordon Technical High was also named in his memory.

REVEREND JOHN PIECHOWSKI, C.R.
PRINCIPAL 1892-1895

This outstanding individual carried on the immense project begun by Father Halter in spite of seemingly insurmountable obstacles. Upon assuming duties as principal, Father was determined to keep the College open. He arranged the courses of study according to the American system. Success resulted. Over eighty students enrolled in 1892.

REVEREND JOHN KRUSZYNSKI, C.R.
PRINCIPAL, 1895-1905

Father Piechowski was succeeded by the Reverend John Kruszynski, a most able educator. During Father's administration, the first commencement exercises were held in the school auditorium. His influence is reflected in the fact that five of the six graduated entered the Congregation of the Resurrection and continued their studies in Rome.

REVEREND JOHN KOSINSKI, C.R.
PRINCIPAL, 1905-1909

During Father Kosinski's term of office, plans were formulated to organize a new St. Stanislaus educational center which would include high school, college, and university departments. Civic groups were formed throughout the midwest to help finance the project. By 1913, the fund increased to $18,000. With the outbreak of World War I, however, the money was given to the war effort. Of course the permission of the donors had been received.

REVEREND LADISLAUS ZAPALA, C.R.
PRINCIPAL, 1909-1920

The years in which Father Zapala served as principal witnessed a modernization program throughout the school. A business college was organized. Both day and evening courses were offered in this two year commercial course. The academic courses were so arranged as to comply with the requirements of the secondary schools. In 1920 Father was elected superior general of the order.

REVEREND THADDEUS LIGMAN, C.R.
PRINCIPAL 1920-1923; 1925-1931

During his two terms Father Ligman found himself playing an important role in several historically significant happenings. In 1928, the building known as Gordon Hall was opened. Father Ligman found himself at the helm of this expanding institution. His ability is reflected in his nine years of service. Also noteworthy was the fact that the name of Weber High became our official name during his term.

REVEREND LEO JASINSKI, C.R.
PRINCIPAL, 1923-1925

A man's merit is not reflected only in his length of service. Father Jasinski served only two years as the head administrator of St. Stanislaus College; however these two years were fruitful ones for the school. The fame of the school's academic achievements continued to spread throughout the Chicago-land area. Father Jasinski served well as teacher and administrator. The memory of this man is firmly imprinted in the history of Weber High.

REVEREND MITCHELL STARZYNSKI, C.R.
PRINCIPAL, 1931-1935

During the difficult depression years Father Starzynski's brilliant mind guided the destinies of Weber High School. Noted for his deep scholarship, untiring perseverance, and exceptional eloquence, Father inspired many new activities for the school. The Mother's Club and the Father's Club were founded under his direction.

REVEREND ANTHONY MAYER, C.R.
PRINCIPAL 1935-1938

The September of 1935 brought with it a pleasant surprise. Students and faculty alike were to learn to appreciate and admire the dynamic personality of Father Mayer. Father's influence upon the cultural and spiritual lives of his students was to be real and lasting. Many alumni will well remember him. As a matter of fact several members of the Weber High faculty consider Father to be one of the important reasons for their choosing the religious life.

REVEREND EDWARD MORKOWSKI, C.R.
PRINCIPAL, 1938-1942

Time and time again Weber High has been blessed with principals who became outstanding leaders in the field of education. Father Morkowski was one of these. He had the arduous task of filling the shoes of Father Mayer. To say that this was adequately done by Father Morkowski would be a gross understatement and simplification. Father accepted the challenge, and Weber High was a better school because he did.

REVEREND STANLEY FIOLEK, C.R.
PRINCIPAL, 1942-1948

A man who will long be remembered by his and succeeding generations of Weberites will be Father Fiolek. This genial man headed the school during the long, dark war years. During his term Weber High was to begin to make its mark in the area of high school athletics. Father was a man of amazing ability. His years were spent successfully as teacher, pastor, and provincial of the order.

REVEREND LOUIS TUSINSKI, C.R.
PRINCIPAL, 1948-1949

Father Tusinski took over the important role of principal in February of 1948. His stay at Weber was a limited one since his superiors felt that he would be of more value to the Congregation in a higher position. In October of 1949 Father was informed that he was to go to Switzerland to act as the Congregation's representative there. Weber High's loss became Switzerland's gain.

REVEREND STANLEY SOKULSKI, C.R.
PRINCIPAL, 1949-1954

Father Sokulski, long time instructor at Weber was named successor to Father Tusinski. During Father's tenure, the new Weber High School emerged into the realm of actuality. His principalship was a period of phenomenal growth, improvement, and prestige to Weber. However, Father Sokulski will long be remembered for his contributions as a just and sincere disciplinarian. His students admired his fairness and his sense of humor.

REVEREND EDWIN KARLOWICZ, C.R.
PRINCIPAL, 1954-1960

A true Weberite, Father served several years as a teacher before assuming the duties of the principal. His tenure was spent in promoting the good name of Weber throughout the community. His service to the school did not end with the culmination of his term. Today he maintains the image of Weber in his office of Athletic Director.

REVEREND GEORGE G. JEND-RACH, C.R.
PRINCIPAL 1960

In this seventy-fifth anniversary year Weber High School is extremely fortunate to have as its principal the very personable Father George. For the past five years he has been burdened with the difficult task of molding Weber's young men into the Christian gentlemen that our society so desperately needs. No one would deny that Father's responsibility is a great one. All the more then is he to be admired in the way he accepts the challenge of his office. As teacher, administrator, and priest, he is the embodiment of the Weber High School motto: Veritas et Caritas.

Father George spends many hours of his long day at his desk.

The New World trophy is happily accepted by our principal.

The ceremonious Ring Day was inaugurated by Father George.

REVEREND CHESTER MITORAJ, C. R. ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

A notable figure in Weber High's administration is Father Chester. A graduate of Weber, he has dedicated his life to his alma mater as teacher, priest and administrator. It would hardly seem possible, but Father also acts as the senior class advisor.

LIBRARY

Weber High is extremely proud of its library facilities. Books, magazines, catalogues, and newspapers are made readily available to the students. They are encouraged to make maximum use of the library. Each year the librarian and his staff make every effort to bring the finest reading material to the Weberite.

The quiet comfort of the library makes it a favorite studying place of the students.

The periodical section presents a few relaxing moments to W. Sarley, S. Rivan, and R. Parise.

J. Carlson and H. Diaz examine the information catalogues.

COUNSELING

Guiding the Weber student has long been the job of Mr. Walter Klimek. Every Weberite is familiar with his considerate and kindly disposition. His direction of the Weber guidance program has left it second to none.

This year Mr. Klimek is happy to add to his staff Mr. Harry Herz, longtime Chicagoland educator and former high school principal.

Mr. Herz and Mr. Klimek examine the student grade book.

The guidance program offers the Weberite an opportunity to examine many colleges and universities. Here the seniors speak with a representative from DePaul University.

Top: The Prom: a very special day in the senior's school year.

Bottom: The Senior players will always remember well the awards received at the Football Banquet.

This Diamond Anniversary year has left its indelible mark on our hearts and minds. We will never forget the thrills of the championship football game, the breath taking moments our basketeers brought us, the fabulous Prom, the Ring Day, and all those exciting moments of our senior year. No, we'll never forget.

DOLPHIN

Student editor P. Podjasek reminisces with assistant editor K. McHugh.

There are innumerable ways in which a student may make a contribution to his school. One of these is the compilation of the school's history. This is always a demanding task but an even more demanding one in this Diamond Anniversary Year. It is the singular desire of the entire staff that this work will bring to the students and friends of Weber High School a lasting memory of a school year dedicated to and highlighted by achievement.

Staff members work to meet a deadline. Pictured are T. Galek, R. Tragasz, J. Radek, R. Bugielski, E. Smith, J. Marnowski.

BAND

In the sun or wind or rain or snow or in the pleasant comfort of the auditorium our band has played and played well. Highlights of the band performances include those now famous and popular half-time pageants at the football games. Participation in such parades as The Columbus Day, Fire Prevention, Mayor Daley's Clean-up, and the Democratic Rally for President Johnson, reflects a busy year. Topping the list was the Jubilee Music Festival held at Weber on April 20.

Monarchs.

September 27 brought the opening of the regular league season. The Horde was ready. Weber defeated Loyola in Wilmette 6-0. The downfall of the Rambler's was the beginning of the Big Red's climb to the top.

Weber's unblemished eleven year record remained unchallenged as Weber downed Gordon Tech 21-6. A Weber football team, now, had never been beaten by a Gordon team in twelve years of competition.

A crippled Weber team hobbled into the Oak Park Stadium to face a panicky Fenwick eleven. Fenwick was fighting to make the playoffs and raced to an early 14-0 lead. But the never say die Weber spirit took hold, and the Weber team dominated the rest of the game. With Weber threatening to break the game wide open, the gun sounded, and Weber was forced to settle for a 14-14 tie.

Next began a series of Weber romps.

the Big Red, and Weber wore another crown.

On a cold sunny day in December before a crowd of 51,468, Weber over-powered Public League Champion C.V.S. 34-13 and gave the Catholic League its fifth consecutive City Title. We took City; we had no pity.

WEBER FIVE ADDS ANOTHER CROWN

Excitement ran high as Weber's battling basketeers took to the hardcourt. On the heels of a championship football season the basketball team sought to bring home another championship. With four of five regulars returning, Coach Al Ostrowski looked confidently to the opening game. Weber opened with an impressive 81-58 victory over St. Michael, and the race was on.

AMONG THE BEST

Playing most of the exhibition tilts without the services of "Tex" Lubash and big Rich Glosniak, the Weber quintet posted an impressive 13-2 record. Feeling in school ran high as championship fever again began to take hold.

Led by our high-scoring, All-State guard Mike Krzyzewski, the team downed eleven of twelve opponents. The only defeat was a disappointing three point over-time defeat to an inspired Gael team.

With a tremendous second half rally the Horde clinched the North Section title against a tough Loyola squad. Another championship had been hard earned.

Unfortunately the season ended on a sad note as the Weber team was upset in the play-offs by the hustling Catholic League Champs to be, Mt. Carmel.

JUNIORS BATTLE TO PLAYOFFS

Unheralded at the beginning of the year, Weber's smaller cagers surprised their Catholic League foes with a powerful, well-coached unit. A 9-4 exhibition record was followed by a 9-3 league record which earned the team a second place finish in the tough North Section. However, our championship dreams ended in a defeat at the hands of St. Rita's Catholic League Champs.

J. Pietrucha sinks a free throw against Fenwick.

M. Horacz alertly passes to quick moving freshman starter, J. Zielinski.

ANOTHER TITLE! SENIOR BOWLERS ROLL OVER OPPONENTS

JUNIORS FINISH SECOND

Heading into the last contest with hope of providing Weber with a dual North Section Crown, our Junior Bowlers fell two games short when they were defeated by arch rival Gordon Tech. Captain S. Borowski finishes first in the City Meet's 100-yard Butterfly-stroke.

WATER POLO

For the past three years, Weber has boasted of its strong Water Polo Team. This year is no exception. Playing in A.A.U. and league-sponsored tournaments, the team has finished no lower than second. To give you some indication of the caliber of this squad, it might do well to mention that Steve Borowski was named to the first string All - American Water Polo Team and Ken Langowski received an Honorable Mention.

WRESTLER'S GRUNT 'N GROAN

Still in its infancy, the wrestling team has learned one thing. There is no substitute for hard work, and Coaches Righeimer and Baran see to it that their charges get plenty.

TRACK

Coach Sassano looks forward to these upcoming meets. This year's squad is composed of members of the Junior Varsity Catholic League Champs of 1963.

M. Haracz breaks at the sound of the gun.

Shot putter K. McHugh gets last minute instruction from Assistant Coach, Mr. J. Righeimer.

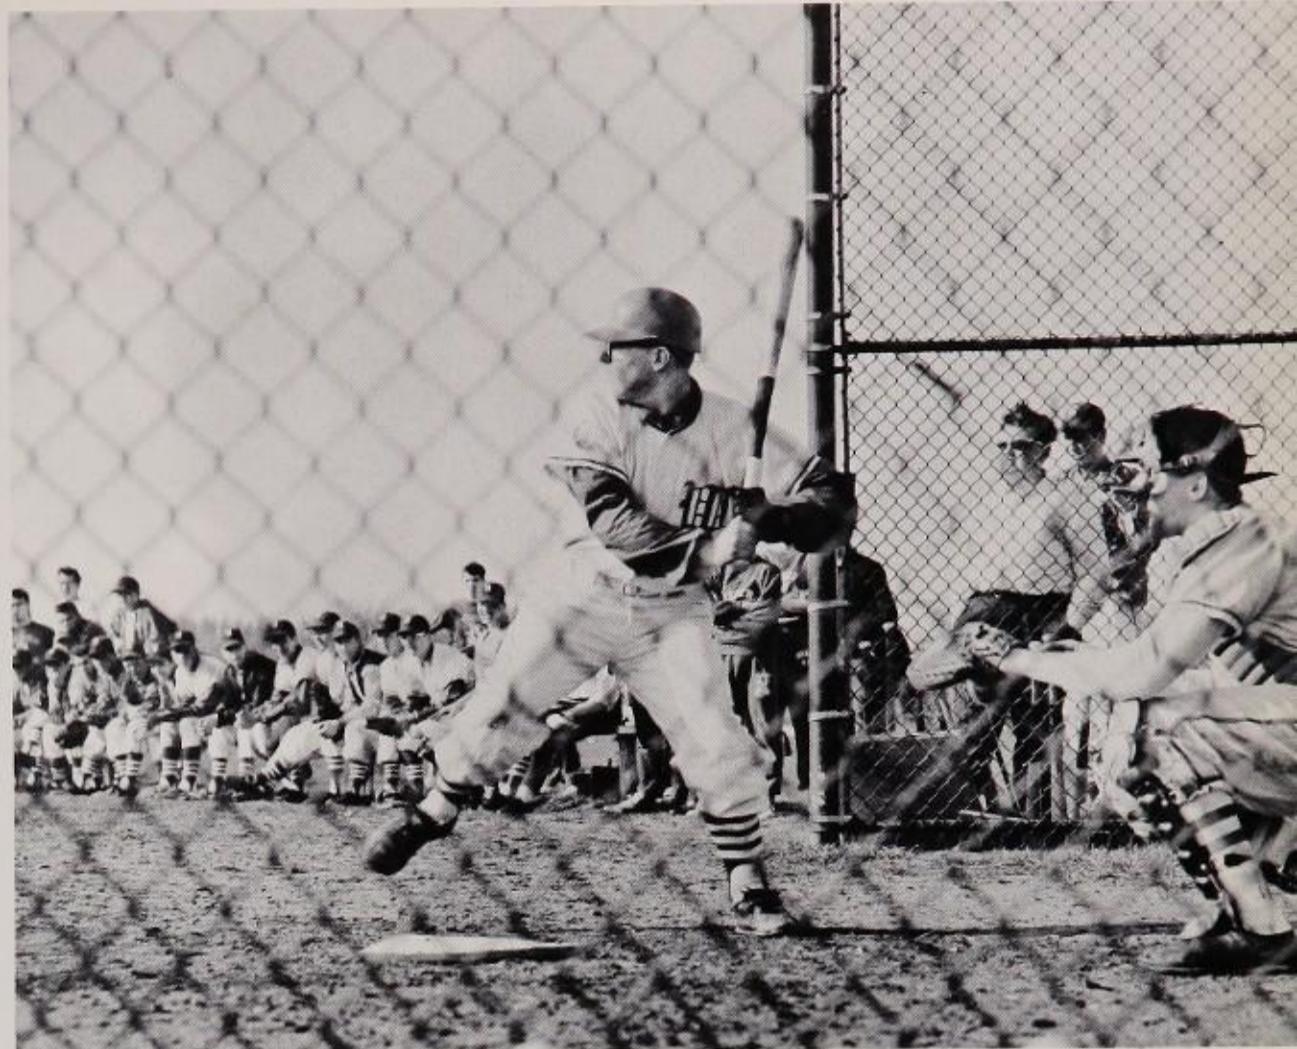

R. Beda soars high over the crossbar in spring meet.

VETERAN BASEBALL TEAM SEEKS NORTH TITLE

A strong Weber Baseball Team is bolstered this year by the return of seven starters from last year's North Section Championship Team. Coach Bonk believes the teams' strong point will be his pitching staff, which is headed by lefty John Lobs, Ken Wojcieszek, and big fireballing Larry Lubash.

The Weber Team should be able to score runs especially if Lou Ferrara continues to spray the ball to all fields. All in all, the squad looks like a real threat to go all the way.

A moment before impact! R. Prokopowicz uncoils.

K. Wojcieszek unwinds against Gordon's Rams.

CREW

If a boy is looking for a sport that will get him into shape and keep him that way, he need not look any further than Weber's winning Crew. Through the years, the squad has challenged and defeated area high schools and many colleges. This year will apparently be no exception.

RING DAY

Identification with his school is the goal of every high school student. What better way of identification is there than the class ring? Weber men have always been proud to associate themselves with their school through the wearing of the senior class ring.

In an as usual impressive ceremony the seniors received their rings on November 20.

Senior class officers assist Fr. George in the conferring of the class rings.

All Weber students participate in this most impressive ceremony.

Assisting Fr. George in the blessing of the rings are Fr. C. Mitoraj, Fr. E. Karlowicz, and Fr. E. Zygmunt.

WEBER HIGH SCHOOL COMMUNITY CONSCIOUS CARITAS

Our school motto is "Veritas et Caritas," Truth and Charity. One of the numerous occasions in which the Weber student representatives were given the opportunity to put into practice the latter part of the motto occurred on the Lion's Club's Candy Day for the Blind. Members of the NHS provided their time and effort to make this day a success.

M.Mas and C. Mucha find Chicagoans to be quite charitable.

COOPERATION

At Alvernia High School, on November 22, the Weber Guardsmen, upon request, happily agreed to participate in the dedicating of a flag and a flag pole in memory of our late President John F. Kennedy.

Weber's Guardsmen contribute to the flag dedication ceremony.

On December 20, at the Ferrara Manor, Weber's giants of Chicagoland prep football concluded another chapter in a remarkable history. Honoring the City Champs were over 500 diners. Among them were Northwestern's excellent coach Alex Agase, the Chicago White Sox first baseman Bill (Moose) Skowron, and other Weber alumni who paid tribute to and heaped deserved praise upon our young warriors.

Splendid casting! Beautiful scenery! Excellent performances! These are but a few of the many accolades directed towards Mr. Charles Linker and his excellent cast, who performed so professionally in this year's musical production Guys and Dolls.

Playing before large receptive audiences and accompanied by Musical Director Mr. Robert DeChristopher's outstanding orchestra, the actors presented three superbly entertaining evenings. Weberites will long remember those performances of March 26, 27, and 28.

HOLY MASS BRINGS FESTIVITIES TO AN APPROPRIATE CLOSE

Saturday, April 24, at 12:00 noon the Diamond Jubilee Mass was celebrated at St. Stanislaus B. & M. Church. This fitting conclusion to the week-long festivities provided the friends of Weber with the opportunity to make the greatest offering possible to Weber in this most memorable year. The Church was filled, the sermon was thought provoking, and God, we pray, showered his blessings on his humble servants.

The Very Reverend Bernard J. Bak, C.R., Provincial, Chicago Province, Congregation of the Ressurection, presents a moving sermon in commemoration of this anniversary year.

Holy Mass is celebrated by the Most Reverend Aloysius Wy cislo, D.D., assisted by Rt. Rev. Msgr. Felix J. Kachnowski, Deacon and Rt. Rev. Msgr. Raymond Zoch, Sub Deacon.

Visiting bishops, monsignors, and priests offer their prayers for Weber High's future success.

The Knights of Columbus make their contribution to the celebration.

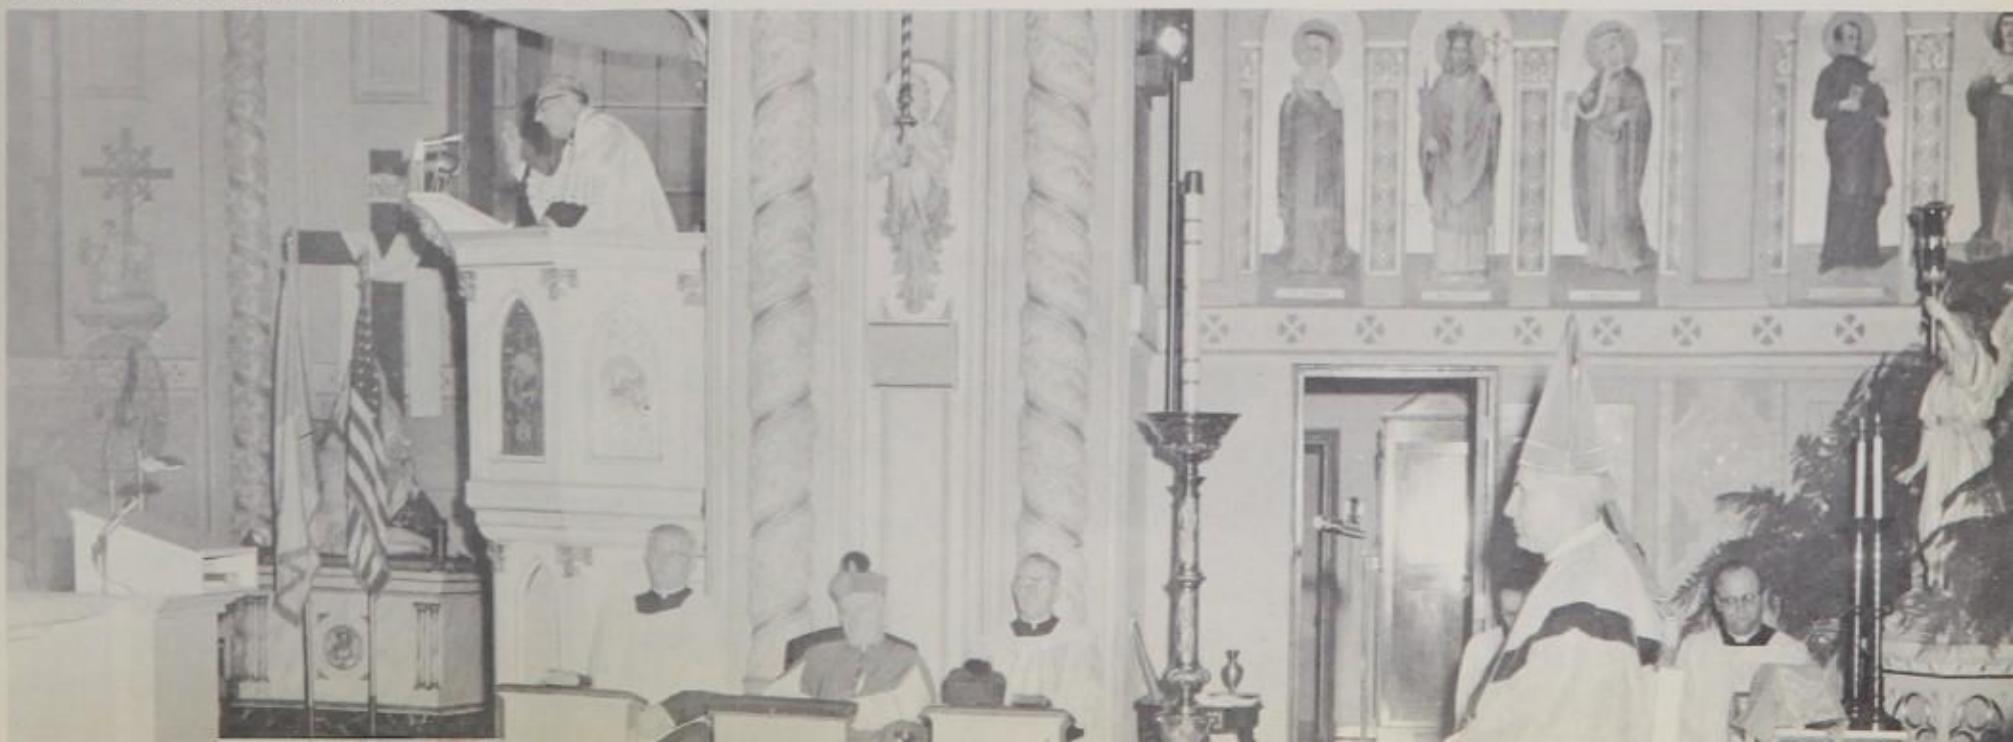

A more fitting way to conclude a book, a celebration, a school year or a lifetime has not yet been devised.
